His docket No 676 & 30th March 1894 Submitting for Sanction a Statement & remission of assessment to be granted to one Narsipur Ramaiya in the ~~Chennagiri~~ Chennarayapatam Taluk for the years 1889-90 and 1890-91.

With reference to the above, has the honor to observe that the area of Survey no 162, the purchase money of which was ordered to be refunded in Govt order No 3145/P.40½ & 8th June 1891, is shown as 2g acres 10 guntas in the remission Statement whereas the same is stated to be in the correspondence on which 28 acres ~~etc~~ the said Govt order was passed and to request that the increase in the area, viz 1200 quintas, may be accounted for. The Dy Commr will also report fully why the land (survey no 62) was not cultivated during the years from 1889-90 to 1891-92, the full land having been resumed by Govt only in 1891-92. The name of the lands for the restoration of which the lands were resumed by Govt, should be stated.
